Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What happened at work or school last week?
- What will happen at work or school next week?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.
- I can talk about things, actions and events in the future.
- I can react to and comment to stories and anecdotes.

Let's Explore!

Peter talks about his job. His new colleague seems like a warm person. John wants to share photos of cultural traditions*.

* A "warm person" is a person who smiles a lot and gives positive energy.

 "Cultural traditions" are things people do regularly in a certain country, like eat special dishes.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- John: Tell me more about your new position.
Peter: I'll be an assistant in the marketing department. I'll work in company communications ...
John: Please, speak slower, Peter.
Peter: I'll plan focus groups.
John: Really?
Peter: Yes. I'll also write documents and post them on social media.
John: That's incredible! How did you get the promotion?
Peter: My boss asked me into his office. I thought it was my last day. He told me I was a friendly and efficient worker. He said he liked my report.
John: Who will you work with?
Peter: I met one colleague with brown hair already. He seems like a warm person. I'll meet others next week.
John: You will be busy. I hope you'll have some free time to see the pictures I send of cultural traditions around the world!
Peter: I hope so too!

Let's Practice!

Peter talks about his new position at MechaTech.

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

I'll be an assistant	so the company understands people's opinions.
I'll work in	and post them on social media.
I'll plan focus groups	in the marketing department.
I'll also write documents	new colleagues next week.
I will meet other	company communications.

Let's Practice!

Peter talks about how he got the promotion. Here's what Mr. Warren said.

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. Yesterday my boss tells me I was a friendly and efficient worker.
2. I meet some of my new colleagues already.
3. Last week I work very hard on the report.
4. My boss asks me into his office.
5. I think it was my last day.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Verb	Simple Past Tense
to spill	spilled
to copy	copied
to like	liked
to help	helped to have	had to be	was, were
to meet	met
to tell	told

Examples:

- How did you get the promotion?
- I guess he liked my report.

The Future Tense

You use the Future tense to talk about actions in the future.

The auxiliary will goes before the verb. The short form is 'll.

You use the Future tense when you talk about intentions, make offers or make predictions.

Examples:

- I'll be an assistant in the marketing department.
- I will work in communications.
