Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Peter talks about his daily routine with Amanda.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your daily routine?
- Does your routine ever change?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can write a short paragraph.
- I can use adverbs of frequency.

Let's Explore!

Peter and Amanda talk about Peter's daily routine. Why is he so tired?

* When you "set up" an area, you put things where you want them.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Amanda: You look terrible! Are you OK?
Peter: Yeah, I'm just tired. I can't seem to get into a routine that works for me.
Amanda: What do you mean?
Peter: Well, I always get up at 6 a.m. and catch the early commuter train to work. I like to get a head start on the day.
Amanda: OK ... What time do you get home?
Peter: I never get home until 7 p.m. I often try to get in a workout before heading home.
Amanda: I get home earlier than that.
Peter: Then I make myself something from scratch. You know I like to cook. I don't like pre-packaged food. Forty-five minutes later, my dinner is ready.
Amanda: When do you get to bed?
Peter: Not before 11 p.m. I edit my reports at night when it's quiet. The office is too noisy. Plus, I have to write that paragraph for the new intern! Geez.
Amanda: That's right. Boy, you do have a crazy routine!

Let's Practice!

Can you write a paragraph about your job? John has to write a paragraph describing his job for the new intern.

Instructions: Choose only the topic sentence from the list.

- ☐ Also, I am involved in event planning and the company's educational outreach program.
- ☐ Now, I write reports and complete market analysis for executives in the office.
- ☐ An internship at MechaTech requires a lot of time and commitment.
- ☐ Overall, it has been an invaluable experience.

Let's Practice!

John tells us about his routine.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: never, always, often.

1. I _____ try to get in a workout before heading home.

Learning Points

Work Routines

Daily routines are things you do every day.

When you talk about daily routines, you use the Present tense and a preposition of time like at, until, by and from ... to.

You use expressions of time like On Saturdays ... to say that you do things on a regular basis.

Preposition or Expression of Time	Use	Example
at	a specific time	I wake up at 7:00 a.m.
until	a period of time leading up to a specific time	I'm in class until 3:00 in the afternoon.
by	at or before	I should be home by 6:00.
from ... to	the beginning and ending time of an activity	I have classes from 9:00 to 3:00 every day.
on (Saturdays) ...	on the same day of the week	I don't have classes on Saturdays.

Adverbs of Frequency

Adverbs of frequency (always, usually, never, etc.) say how often something happens.

Adverb	How Often?
always	100%
usually	60%
rarely	10%
never	0%
