

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

What's new with you?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What's new at work?
- Do you like your work? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask questions using words like what, when, where.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.

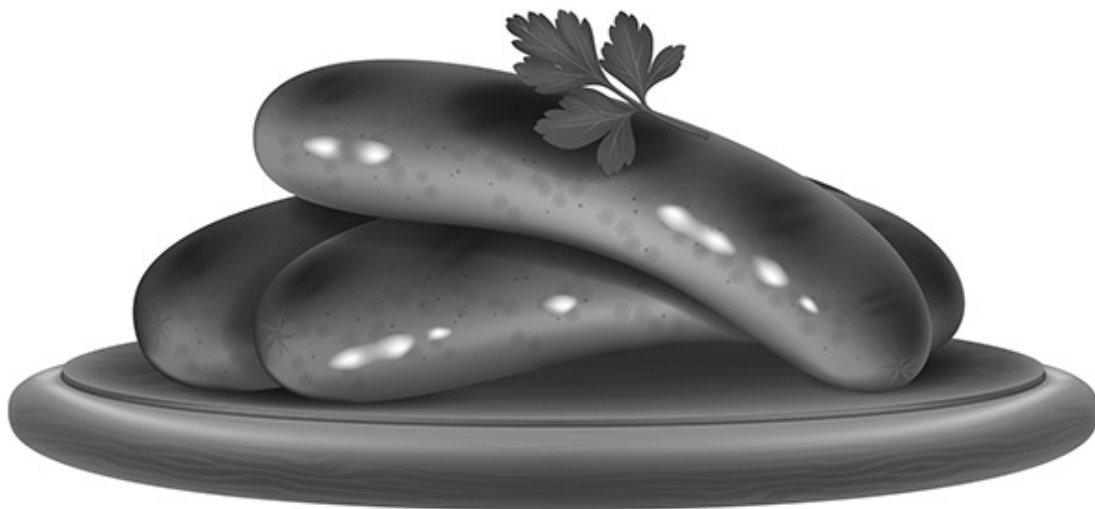

Let's Explore!

Peter talks about his real-world experience at MechaTech.

* "Real-world" experience is things you learn at work, like how to participate in meetings.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: What's new at work?

Peter: I'm still an intern at MechaTech.

John: Do you like it?

Peter: Yes, I do. I'm getting some real-world experience in communications, marketing and design. I am responsible for event planning.

John: What kind of events do you plan?

Peter: I organized a meeting of professional German sausage makers. They talked about spices a lot.

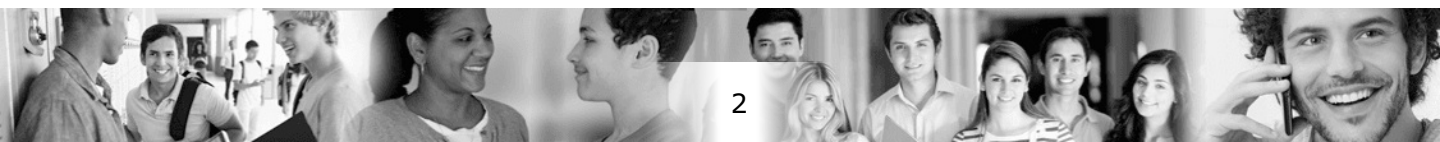

John: That's cool. When was the event?

Peter: It was last week. I didn't understand anything. The week before that, there was a convention for amateur astronomers. I prepared the marketing brochure.

John: Wow, that's really cool. How did it go?

Peter: The brochure was good, except that I misspelled the word "astronomer". I spelled it "ar" instead of "er".

John: Oh, Peter!

Let's Practice!

Let's review words related to work.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

1. Which word is a responsibility at work?

- ☐ Professional
- ☐ Real-world
- ☐ Communications

2. Which word describes a person?

- ☐ Design
- ☐ Marketing
- ☐ Amateur

Let's Practice!

John asks Peter questions about his work.

Instructions: Draw a line from the question or statement on the left to the response on the right.

What do you do at work?

It was last week.

What kind of events do you plan?

It was at the convention center.

When was the event?

I do event planning and communications.

Where was the event?

It was very good.

How did it go?

Professional meetings.

Extension Activity

Make a memory game related to responsibilities at work, then play the game with a partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Make a list of 10 jobs. Write each job on a separate paper.
- For each job, write 1 responsibility. Write each responsibility on a separate paper.
- Place the papers face down so you can't see the words.
- Turn one paper over to see the word.
- Turn another paper over. If they are a match, you take the words. If they are not a match, you place them face down again.
- Continue until all the papers are taken.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I think of jobs and responsibilities.

☐ ☐

I make a memory game.

☐ ☐

I play the memory game with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- real-world (adjective): typical of things that happen
e.g. I'm getting some real-world experience at my job.
- communications (noun): formal messages from a company or institution, in writing or through the media
e.g. I work in communications, marketing and design.
- sausage (noun): different types of meat tightly wrapped
e.g. I organized a meeting of German sausage makers.
- amateur (adjective): describes a person who does an activity for pleasure, not as a job
e.g. Last week there was a convention for amateur astronomers.
- professional (adjective): describes a person who is paid money to do an activity
e.g. I organized a meeting of professional German sausage makers.
- astronomer (noun): a person who studies outer space
e.g. I'm interested in space, so I want to be an astronomer.
- to misspell (verb): to write something incorrectly
e.g. I misspelled the word astronomer.

Learning Points

Talking About Work

Here are some words you use to talk about work.

Responsibilities:

communications: oral and written messages from a company or institution

marketing: promoting a business in different ways

design: how something looks

event planning: the processing of organizing large meetings

Other work-related words:

real-world experience: things you learn and skills you develop at work, not school

meeting: a group of people talking and making decisions together

convention: a large meeting of many people

convention center: a large building where conventions are organized

brochure: a written document about a business

professional: a person who is paid to do an activity

amateur: a person who is not a professional

Examples:

- I'm getting some real-world experience in communications, marketing and design.
- I am responsible for event planning.

