Let's Start!

What happened last week?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What are some problems that happen at work?
- Did these things happen to you? When?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe people.
- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.

Let's Explore!

Peter and John are talking about work. What is Peter's pet peeve?

* "Pet peeve" is a common expression. You use it to talk about something you don't like.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Long time no see! How's your work going?

Peter: It's a bit stressful.

John: Why?

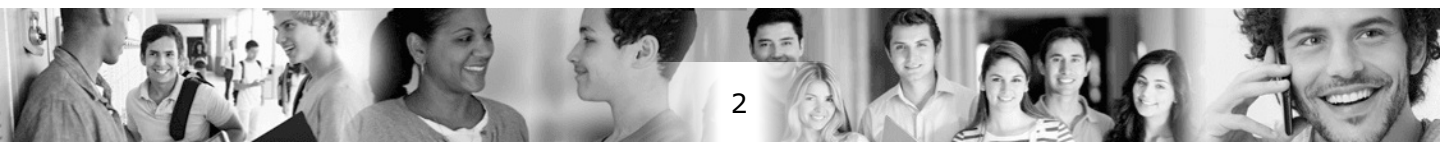

Peter: Well, last week I had a problem with a colleague, Ted. He's a short, heavyset man with a beard. He asked me to write a report. I didn't get any help from anyone, so I just made something up. He didn't like it very much. Oh, that's too bad.

John: Then last week, I caused another problem in the office. I'm sharing a workspace with this woman, Amanda.

Peter: Amanda? Is she pretty?

Peter: Yes. She has long blonde hair and blue eyes. Anyways, she asked me to revise a document, but I lost it, so she had to do it again.

John: Oh, Peter! That's my pet peeve!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Describing People

You use adjectives to describe people.

You can also use nouns to say what a person has, like a beard.

The adjective can be placed:

- Before the person
- After the verb to be or to have
- After an expression like "with ... "

Adjectives	Nouns
short, tall	man, woman
blonde, brunette	man, woman
thin, heavyset	man, woman
brown, blue, green	eyes
blond, brown, black, gray	hair
long, short	beard

Examples:

- The tall woman is in the office.
- He's a short man.
- He's a heavyset man with a beard.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Verb	Simple Past Tense
to ask	asked
to copy	copied
to surround	surrounded
to protect	protected
to have	had to be	was, were
to make	made
to think	thought

Examples:

- Last week, I had a problem with a colleague.
- He asked me to write a report.
- I didn't get any help from anyone, so I just made something up.
- He didn't like it very much.
