

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

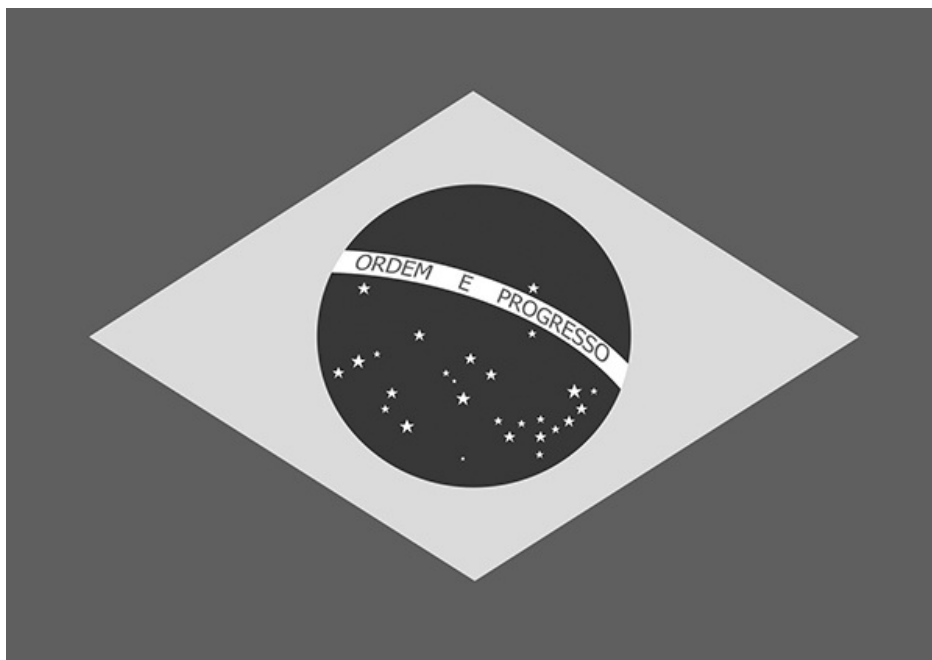

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's modern! It's beautiful! Where are we?

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe plans for the organization of events.

Ask your partner:

- What cities do you know?
- How can you describe them?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe a city and places in it.
- I can react to and comment to stories and anecdotes.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.

Let's Explore!

John is talking about his travels in Brazil.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Did you go to Brazil?

John: Yes, we visited Rio de Janeiro and Recife.

Peter: How were they?

John: Recife is modern and exciting, but very busy. It's one of Brazil's largest cities. The name refers to the stone reefs around the city. It's beautiful. They call it the Venice of Brazil.

Peter: No way!

John: It has amazing beaches. I went on a walking tour and saw many sights. Close to there is a pleasant, historic town called Olinda. It's a World Heritage Site because of the colonial architecture.

Peter: You don't say!

John: The sun is so hot there. I got a bad sunburn after a few hours, even though I wore sunblock.

Peter: That's incredible!

Let's Practice!

Can you believe it?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

You don't unbelievable!

That

way.

No

believe it!

It's

say.

I can't

is incredible

Let's Practice!

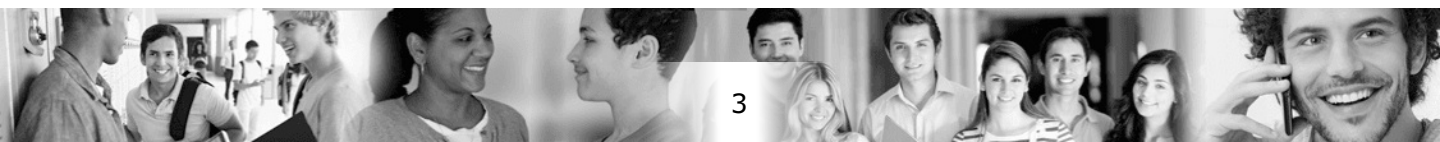

Peter is reporting about his traveling experiences. What does he say?

Instructions: Find the words in the word search below.

Words

visited went saw got wore

Extension Activity

Play a guessing game. Describe a city and guess which city your partner is talking about.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a list of 5 cities in the world.
- Choose 3 adjectives that describe each city. Write the adjectives on a separate paper.
- Ask your partner to guess which city goes with which adjectives.
- Discuss what you know about the cities.
- Change roles. Ask your partner to think of 5 different cities.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I choose 5 cities.

☐ ☐

I describe the cities.

☐ ☐

I play the guessing game with a partner.

☐ ☐

I discuss the cities.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to refer (verb): to be associated with e.g. The name refers to the stone reefs around the city.
- incredible (adjective): amazing; great
e.g. The city of Recife was incredible.
- university (noun): an institution for advanced education
e.g. There are many important universities and hospitals.
- wore (verb): the verb to wear in the Simple Past tense
e.g. I got a bad sunburn even though I wore sunblock.
- World Heritage Site (noun): an official designation of the United Nations as a place that is very important for history e.g. The town of Olinda is a World Heritage Site because of the colonial architecture.
- pleasant (adjective): agreeable; nice to be in e.g. Olinda is a small, pleasant town.

Learning Points

Describing Cities

You use adjectives to describe cities.

Here are some adjectives and their opposites.

Adjective	Opposite
modern	old, ancient, historic
beautiful	ugly
calm	busy, crowded
quiet	loud, noisy
pleasant	unpleasant
cheap	expensive
clean	polluted
hot, warm	cold, cool
large	small
exciting	boring

Examples:

- Recife was very modern and exciting, but very busy.
- It's beautiful.

Learning Points

Expressing Disbelief

Disbelief means you don't believe something, or you have a hard time believing something.

You express disbelief using expressions. These expressions are often used as a polite way to keep the conversation going.

Often, you don't really mean you do not believe the person. You mean what they are saying is uncommon, strange or unusual.

No way!

You don't say!

That is incredible!

It's unbelievable!

I can't believe it!

I can't imagine!

Examples:

• John: I got a bad sunburn even though I wore sunblock.

Peter: That's incredible!

