

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

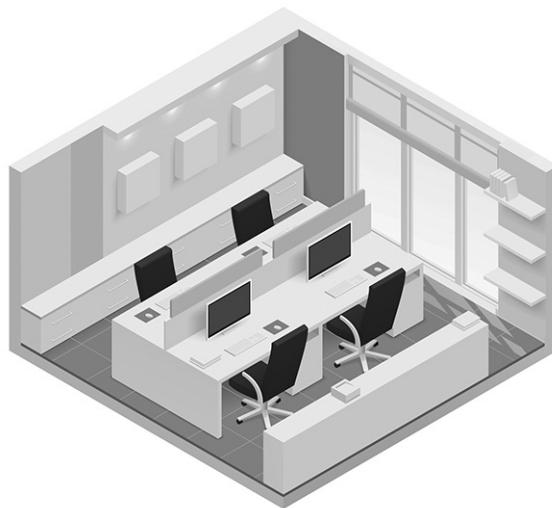

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: John and Peter live different lives.

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can use homophones like to, too and two.
- I can use intonation and stress.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Ask your partner:

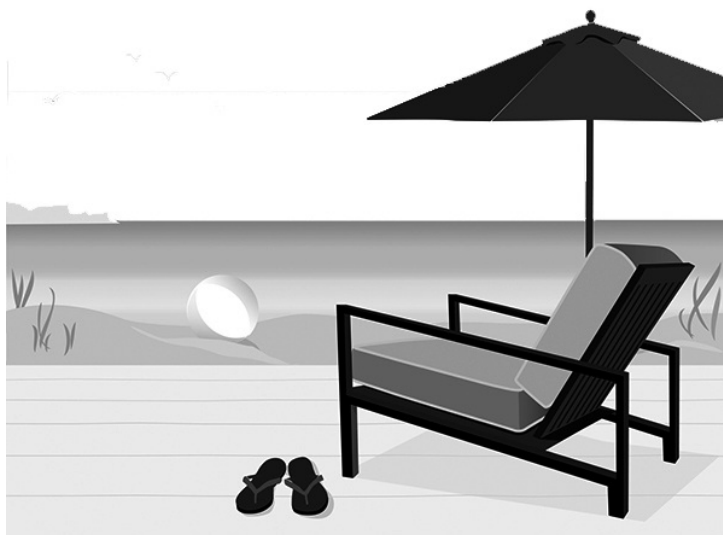

- Are your friends working? Going to school? Traveling?
- Do you wish you were doing something different in your life? What?

Let's Explore!

Listen to John and Peter talk about John's job.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Nice ring! Is it new?
John: My uncle Nick gave it to me.
Peter: I wish I had an uncle like that.
John: You're getting paid per hour as an intern at MechaTech, right ?
Peter: Yes, but I don't earn much. It's only enough to get by.
John: Oh, that's right, I knew that. I thought you were only working in the mail room and making coffee.
Peter: I was, initially. I proved to them I could take on other responsibilities.
John: Like learning about German sausage?
Peter: Not all of us can travel the world like you, John.
John: I have to admit, some places just blew me away.
Peter: Tropical blue water and amazing scenery ... It must be tough!
John: Life's pretty good.
Peter: The only scenery I have is of offices and boardrooms.
John: Well, I can buy you some postcards.
Peter: Hmmm ... I have to start working my way up the corporate ladder. I'm hoping to move out of my cubicle one day.
John: You mean "our cubicle". Don't you share it?

Let's Practice!

Let's practice saying homophones.

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. blue, blew
2. hour, our
3. buy, by
4. You're getting paid per hour as an intern at MechaTech, right?
5. You mean "our cubicle". Don't you share it?
6. Well, I can buy you some postcards.
7. It's only enough to get by.
8. I have to admit, some places just blew me away.
9. Tropical blue water and amazing scenery... It must be tough!

Let's Practice!

How does Peter feel about John's trips?

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

postcards / sausage / was / I / our / hour / me / must

1. It _____ be tough!
2. Like learning about German _____?
3. You mean _____ "cubicle"?
4. I can buy you some _____.
5. I wish _____ had an uncle like that.

Extension Activity

Research a job that lets you work and travel at the same time!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Research a job you would like to do that includes travel.
- Complete the table below.
- Present the information to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I research a job online.

☐ ☐

I complete the table about jobs.

☐ ☐

I tell my partner about jobs.

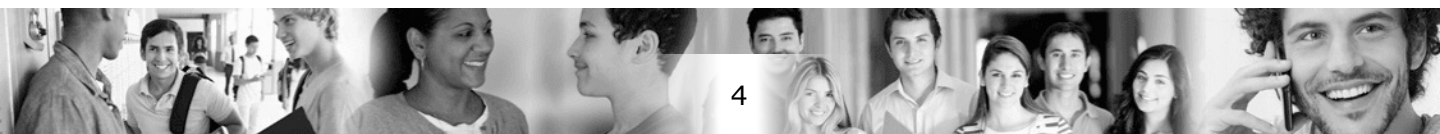

☐ ☐

Job Title:
Full-Time or Part-Time:
Where is it located? Which city?
What are the responsibilities?
Where do you travel to?
What is the salary?

Target Words

- ring (noun): a piece of jewelry that is usually worn on a finger
e.g. My uncle gave me this ring.
- to get by (expression): to have just enough to survive
e.g. I make enough in my job to get by.
- to blow (verb): to impress someone in a very strong way
e.g. His photos of the dolphins blew me away.
- responsibility (noun): a duty or task that a person is required to do e.g. I have a responsibilities at work.
- initially (adverb): occurring at the beginning of something e.g. Initially, I had to sort the mail and make coffee.
- must be tough (expression): suggests that a person is doing something very enjoyable while others are not (this is a form of irony)
e.g. It must be tough to travel around the world and not work.
- corporate ladder (noun): the order of positions in a large corporation
e.g. I am working my way up the corporate ladder.

Learning Points

Homophones

Homophones are words that have exactly the same sound but different meanings and usually spelling.

These words can be confusing when writing.

Homophone	Example
to too two	I am walking to work. I am walking to work too. I am walking to work at two o'clock.
they're their there	They're meeting in the boardroom. They are meeting their co-workers in the boardroom. There are many books.
sun son	The sun is hot today. My son likes hot weather. plane plain	John went on a plane to Belize. Airplane food is usually quite plain.

