Let's Start!

Getting a promotion is hard work!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Would you like to have a promotion? Why or why not?
- What would your ideal job be like?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events.
- I can talk about things, actions and events in the future.

Let's Explore!

Peter is getting a promotion! But why?

* A "promotion" is when a company gives you a new job with more responsibility.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Mr. Warren: Please come in, Peter. How are you doing?
Peter: I'm good, thanks, Mr. Warren, I know I had problems last week ...
Mr. Warren: Peter ...
Peter: I'm sorry I didn't finish the report on time ...
Mr. Warren: Oh Peter, that's OK.
Peter: And I'm sorry I lost Amanda's document ...
Mr. Warren: Peter ...
Peter: And I feel really bad I spilled coffee on your assistant and arrived late ...
Mr. Warren: Peter ... please let me speak.
Peter: Yes?
Mr. Warren: You are a good worker. You are friendly and efficient. I'm giving you a promotion.
Peter: Really?
Mr. Warren: Yes. As of Monday, you will be responsible for educational outreach. You'll write blogs and articles for the company website. You'll also plan focus group sessions.
Peter: Cool! Thank you, Mr. Warren!

Let's Practice!

Peter talks to Mr. Warren about his past experiences at work. What does he say?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: arrived, spilled, had, didn't finish, lost.

1. He _____ problems last week.
2. He _____ the report on time.
3. He _____ coffee on Mr. Warren's assistant.
4. He _____ Amanda's document.
5. He _____ late.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Verb	Simple Past Tense
to spill	spilled
to copy	copied
to protect	protected
to lose	lost
to be	was, were
to have	had
to speak	spoke
to think	thought

Examples:

- I had problems last week.
- I didn't finish the report on time.

Learning Points

The Future Tense

You use the Future tense to talk about actions in the future.

The auxiliary will goes before the verb. The short form is 'll.

You use the Future tense when you talk about intentions, make offers or make predictions.

Examples:

- I will finish the project soon.
- You will be responsible for educational outreach.
- We'll send the invitations.
